

BENEATH THE IMAGE > Recommended web sites Jane Edwards Griffin / Curtis Trent

www.indesignmag.com

A complete resource for InDesign Professionals – or those just starting out.

www.paperspecs.com

Best online paper database specifically developed for the design & print industries

www.paperspecs.com/resources/links

Paper Specs very useful link page. Answer questions on marketing, technology, legal concerns and environmental practices in the industry. Find the latest design publications, printer links etc.

www.bamagazine.com

Before & After magazine: Reviews in a practical and fundamental manner graphic design strategies and solutions. Sometimes trendy, but often inspiring. Dedicated to making graphic design “understandable, useful and even fun for everyone”.

www.gdc.net

The Graphic Designers of Canada. A national certified body of graphic designers promoting high standards of graphic design and ethical business practices, for the benefit of Canadian industry, commerce, public service and education.

www.aiga.org

AIGA – The American Institute of Graphic Arts. A great resource reviewing the exchange of ideas and information in the industry. Topics include critical analysis, research, advance education and ethical practice.

www.icograda.org

ICOGRADA – the world body for professional graphic design and visual communication

www.education.icograda.net

The Icograda Education Network (IEN) brings together a worldwide community of graphic design educational institutions. An opportunity for exchange and collaboration at all levels of graphic design education (institutions, faculty and students)

www.capic.org

Find a professional photographer or Illustrator with CAPIC (The Canadian Association of Photographers and Illustrators in Communications)

www.robgalbraith.com

Everything you could ever want to know about digital photography. News, reviews, tutorials and discussion forums for professional photographers:

www.pdnonline.com

Photo District News: Don't let this “msn.com-looking” site design dissuade you... it is an excellent resource for all things photographic.